Property Description

The large lot for sale is located in a highly sought-after gated community, offering privacy and security. The lot is sizeable, providing ample space for constructing a main house, a swimming pool, and a caretaker or guest house, with plenty of room to spare. The property has ocean views, which can be enjoyed from various vantage points across the lot. A seasonal creek borders the property, adding character to the land and providing a serene setting for relaxation. The creek can serve as an attractive feature for landscaping, creating a tranquil oasis in the midst of the lot. The lot provides potential buyers with a blank canvas to create their dream home, complete with all the amenities they desire. With enough space to accommodate multiple structures, there is plenty of room for creative design and unique architecture. The lot's natural features, such as the creek and ocean views, can also be incorporated into the design for maximum aesthetic appeal.
