Property Description

Nestled in the picturesque landscape of Pacuarito de Perez Zeledon, Costa Rica, this property offers a serene retreat with stunning panoramic mountain views. Spread over just under an acre of lush land, the cool altitude of approximately 800 meters ensures refreshing breezes and comfortable temperatures year-round. At the heart of the property stands a charming rustic cabin, boasting two bedrooms and one bath, complemented by a quaint small carport. Surrounded by a plethora of fruit trees, including mango, avocado, and citrus varieties, this cozy cabin provides a peaceful haven amidst nature's bounty. Conveniently accessible from Highway 243, this property offers easy transit, with only a 20-minute drive to downtown San Isidro, providing access to amenities and services. Additionally, the allure of Playa Dominical's sandy shores is within reach, located just 40 minutes away, offering a perfect escape to the beach.
