Property Description

The land is located in a popular neighborhood in Ojochal. With a minimal amount of grading, the lot is ready to build your dream home. Legal water (Ojochal Asada), electricity and fiber-optic internet services are available and ready to connect. A seasonal creek flows through the land, which attracts the local wildlife including agoutis, coatis, monkeys and more. There are some beautiful mature trees on this typical Costa Rican jungle property which will provide your future home with plenty of shade. The access to the lot is excellent, well-maintained gravel roads, just 10 minutes away from great restaurants, shopping, groceries, spa, gym, and racquet courts in the quaint community of Ojochal. Just a few minutes further to unspoiled beaches and beyond to the commercial hub of Uvita. People from all over the world dream of owning a home in Costa Rica's Southern Pacific zone, popular for its' pristine beaches, the wildlife, biodiversity and its ideal tropical climate year-round.
